

Hawaii Federal Judicial Selection Commission
Reference Form-2
PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

4. Does the Applicant possess specific legal or judicial skills that are noteworthy?
For instance, does the Applicant have noteworthy skills as a mediator, arbitrator, writer, collaborator, leader or organizer of people, decision—maker, etc.; and if so, what are they?

5. What is your opinion of the Applicant's integrity and moral courage?

6. What is your opinion of the Applicant's legal ability and experience?

7. What is your opinion of the Applicant's intelligence and wisdom?

8. What is your opinion of the Applicant's compassion and fairness?

9. What is your opinion of the Applicant's diligence and decisiveness?

12. Do you have any reason to believe that the Applicant has ever been charged for a violation of any law? If your answer is yes, please provide the time, place, nature of the violation, and any other information which you may have on the matter.

13. Do you have knowledge of anything in the Applicant's background, professional skills, character, or personal qualities that would reflect adversely upon the Applicant's candidacy for judicial office? If yes, please give details.

Hawaii Federal Judicial Selection Commission
Reference Form-2
PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

14. Do you have any other comments about the Applicant that may assist the Commission in its evaluation?

15. How well do you know the Applicant?

Hawaii Federal Judicial Selection Commission
Reference Form-2
PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

16. How long have you known the Applicant, and how frequently have you had contact with him/her over that period of time?

17. On a scale of 1 to 5 (1 being NOT Qualified, 3 being Qualified, and 5 being Exceptionally Qualified), how would you rate the Applicant's ability to be a judge of others in the office being sought? If you do not have an opinion, you may answer with "No Opinion".

Hawaii Federal Judicial Selection Commission
Reference Form-2
PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

18. Are you related to the Applicant?

19. If so, how?

Signature